Korea War Dims Chances For More Funds To Administrate U. S. Evacuee Claims

WASHINGTON: — The United States is girding itself for the economic costs of supporting U.N. action in Korea. And this has dimmed hopes Congress will expand the Evacuation Claims Act budget for the fiscal year 1951.

Reliable sources advised the JACL Anti-Discrimination Committee that there seems little likelihood Congress will provide much more for the claims program this year than the $1,300,000 proposed by the Senate Appropriations Committee because of the Korean situation.

Most domestic measures are being cut. The defense departments are the only ones in for more money.

Nevertheless, Mike Masaoka, national JACL ADC legislative director, said a strong effort will be made on either the floor of the Senate or in House-Senate conferences to get an increase in claims appropriations.

Nisei Officer Shoots Suspect In Gun Fight

LOS ANGELES. — A Nisei police officer took part in the gun battle with a bandit suspect in Los Angeles recently.

Officer Stanley T. Uno stated that he shot [illegible] J. Williams when the suspect drew a gun threatening Uno's partner. The Nisei shot six times and killed Williams, who had fired five shots in return.

The suspect was wanted for [illegible], robbery and auto theft in Oklahoma and for parole [illegible] in Illinois.

MACKENZIE KING:

Headed Federal Investigation Of 1907 Anti-Oriental Riots

By Staff Writer

One of the early acts of Mackenzie King during his long political career was of utmost concern to the Japanese in Canada at the time. It dates back to the early part of this century when he was appointed Royal Commissioner to investigate the methods by which Oriental labor was being induced to emigrate to British Columbia as well as to inquire into the [illegible] Oriental riots in Vancouver in 1907.

At the time he was the deputy minister of labor, a position to which he was appointed in 1900 when the department of labor was first organized as a part of the Government of Canada. Thus Mr. King was the first to be appointed deputy minister of labor, a position which he held until 1908 when he resigned to seek election to a seat in the House of Commons, the first step in his political ascendency which led to his election as prime minister of Canada.

At the turn of the century, there was a clamour by B.C. interests that the matter of Oriental immigration be investigated, particularly as to the matter of illegal entry of Japanese, Chinese and East Indians. Thus in 1906 he was appointed Royal Commissioner to inquire into the question.

Then in the following year as an aftermath of agitation and incitement, the anti-Oriental riots broke out in Vancouver directed against the Japanese and Chinese of that city. A group of several hundred [illegible] attacks in the Japanese and Chinese sections of Vancouver.

Eight Pilots Enter Nisei Plane Race

LOS ANGELES. — Eight Japanese American pilots have so far entered the Henry Ohye Trophy Race which will be flown from Los Angeles to Chicago from Central Airport on Sept. 24.

Ohye, sponsor of the race, disclosed the winners of the race will be determined on the basis of time and fuel economy with most of the crafts entered in the light-plane category.

Racial Superiority Disproved by Research

PARIS, France — The claims of superiority of certain races over others has no justification in sound natural scientific fact, it is announced here by a panel of international researchers.

Social factors are the dominating ones in the development of men, regardless of race according to these findings, endorsed by the United Nations Educational, Scientific, and Cultural Organization.

Nature itself does not produce racial differences. These are caused by artificial barriers set up by social structures over long periods of time, the experts continue.

In order to bring to bear all the important modern factors on this study, the panel was made up of biologists, geneticists, psychologists, sociologists and anthropologists.

A Sansei Becomes Of Voting Age

By Toyo Takata

It was an unspectacular item, we thought, huddled in an unobtrusive hindmost section of our July 19 Weekly Habit column. We had casually dropped a remark that the oldest Sansei we knew was just 12 years of age.

Of course, we were, out of journalistic curiosity, interested to find out exactly who was the oldest Canadian Sansei. Sansei, in our technical [illegible], a [illegible], irrespective of sex, born of Nisei parents. And by Nisei we mean [illegible] parents are of Japanese ancestry and who [illegible] in Canada.

W. L. MACKENZIE KING

Canada has lost a great Canadian, a man who has given most of his life to public service. The Rt. Hon. William Lyon Mackenzie King was the prime minister of Canada for the longest term that any Canadian has served as the elected head of his country's government.

While no one today can determine Mr. King's place in the historic advancement of this young nation, he will without question rank among the leading and early builders of a youthful Canada. He has shared prominently in the development of Canadian autonomy to his present position among the nations of the world. He has seen Canada through eventful and critical times, and played an important role in its destiny through these decisive moments. It is noteworthy that out of 83 years since Confederation, Mr. King was prime minister for close to 22 years of that time.

One cannot be in complete accord with what he has done during his term of office. Japanese Canadians will remember that it was his government that implemented the stringent wartime controls against them which severely limited their rights and freedoms as Canadian citizens. However, it may be said that he has, during his public career, constantly acted in good faith within the bounds of political expediency.

He was entirely devoted to his political office. Outside, he had little interest. And wrapped in the responsible duties of his position, he labored faithfully and earnestly with the welfare of Canada at heart. No man can do more.

EXPLODING A MYTH

A panel of international scientists, working under the direction of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organizations (UNESCO) has recently released in Paris a summary of their findings which should dispel the outdated and unsubstantiated belief that certain races are superior to others. The study was thorough and conclusive; the group being made up of biologists, geneticists, psychologists, sociologists and anthropologists to assure that all factors will be brought to bear on the investigation.

A summary of their findings underscores the following points:

1. Racial discrimination such as marked Nazi policy which is still practiced in various parts of the world has no natural scientific basis.

2. No group of mankind differs essentially from [illegible] in intelligence, temperament or other inherent mental characteristics.

3. Racial mixture through intermarriage do not [illegible] biologically bad results. The social results [illegible] such mixing are purely the result [illegible].

4. A race is not constituted by a national or religious [illegible] within a geographical area or [illegible] united together by a common [illegible]. The experts recognized only [illegible] Negroid and Caucasoid.)

[illegible] providing [illegible] of the [illegible] the same.

Editor, The New Canadian:

In your recent item, "Who is Canada's oldest Sansei?", letter from Shige E. Yoshida claims that his niece is 19 years of age going on to 20. I myself am going on to 19, but my older brother Fred, turned 21 last June and is a genuine Sansei. I also have a younger brother, Ken, who is 14 years of age.

Richard Miyasaki,

A LETTER TO AN ORPHAN

Dear Lucy:

Summer is fine, and so are spring and winter. But the heat and the violent changes of summer are too much for many of us, and winter in Manitoba is simply—if you will pardon the expression. Lucy—one long. [illegible] us Belle and Spring, even with the blooms bursting forth and with the promise of a bright summer, is always disagreeably windy, and cold.

I guess I like autumn.

The life of Summer, as the heat carries over like an afterglow into fall. One can relax in a beach chair and watch the white patches of cloud creep across the deep blue sky without feeling sticky and paralyzed by the heat. One can walk the suburban streets in the refreshing autumn air and be soothed by the rustling leaves that arch over the street like a mother's protecting arm. The atmosphere, and the satisfying memories of the summer just past, lead to the serenity, the mildness, and the gentleness of autumn.

But autumn is a dying month. Before long, the green leaves turn sickly yellow and fall like a woman's tear. The soft autumn winds begin to take on a little sting, that later turn into winter's biting whip. The parks, swimming pools, and tennis courts, [illegible] bathers [illegible] morning [illegible] powder [illegible] and [illegible] other [illegible] [illegible] dying.

THE SHIGEMURA STORY

By GEORGE GRIM

(From his famous column, "I Like It Here," in the Minneapolis Sunday Tribune of May 7).

This is a story about a father and a mother whose son found a friend.

That friend was a college — Carleton — at Northfield, Minn.

The story is about Frank Shigemura, a Japanese-American who had grown up in a set apart section of Seattle. A lot of us remember what happened to those fellow citizens of ours just after Pearl Harbor. Frank had been attending the University of Washington. But suddenly he found himself being moved away from the west coast. He was one of [illegible] boys who assembled on the Carleton college campus in the army [illegible] reserve.

Frank found friendship there. He studied economics, Spanish, English, math. His grades [illegible] good and even that Minnesota winter of 1942 didn't [illegible] his feeling of warmth.

The next March all [illegible] in the group were shipped to Wisconsin to enter active officers' training under the V-12 program. [illegible] went to Winona [illegible] days later, Frank [illegible] Carleton. He [illegible]

Just at the end of the semester in June, the dean called Frank into his office.

"You've just been called up," he told Frank. "Your notification's coming."

Frank couldn't say a word. He shook the dean's hand.

Bits of Frank's army record kept drifting back to Carleton. He became Pfc. Shigemura, a member of the 442nd regimental combat team. He fought in Italy with the 34th division with many other boys from Minnesota.

ON SECRET assignment to France as a member of a special combat team then came. That was the outfit that liberated the "lost battalion" [illegible] was [illegible] Shigemura [illegible] 1944.

一番かわいそうなのは黒人の子供で、もの珍しさうに見物するだけで何もしてやらないというのです。殊にその黒人はみんなが白い顔をしているのでわずか四歳の子供でありながらカガミを見る事を大嫌いやがり、カガミを面白半分に見せると、手でかくして泣き出すということです。

こんなおさない子供でさえもこれが習慣となつて、いろいろ物持ちの白人子供に日本の人子供たちがオベッカを作［illegible］チャチャなか［illegible］というのです。そのあとで日本人の子供は黒人の子供に何かしてあげようとするのですが、可愛がられないのでヒネクレている黒人の子供ですから好意は無駄になる場合が多いということです。

戦後、日本を訪れる在外一、二世も日を追つて多くなつて来ましたが、ただ私の意見では穴があつたら入りたくなる感じで一杯です。観光の目的だけでしたら日本を少しでも胸にえがく人々の訪日は恥かしくて少し持つて頂きたいくらゐです。復興ぶりを見に来られるのなれば別でありますが……。

第一、横濱に下りれば口をきかない以上、こゝは日本名のついた外國でしかありません。實際、働いている人々は外人の方が多く目につきます［illegible］表面は西洋以上の文化であり、しかもされが木と紙と土で出來たバラック建の一と息で吹きとぶ文化です。一通り世界各國の名前がさんなヘンピな地方にも堂々と揭げられていますが、常にそこにはマキの煙がくすぶり、衛生官はシラミ退治のデー・デー・チーを持つてとび歩いており、東京の眞中をニヤシ車がのろのろと料理にまでシミ込む如き速度で歩いております。

（朝日「無題」らんから）

おも苦しい不安が日本をおおつている。毎日の新聞に大きく出る朝鮮の戦争の記事を見て、心を痛めない人間は、またもや戦争によつてうまいシルを吸おうとする人非人以外にはないはずである

しかしそれと同時に早くも疎開の心配をしている人間がいる。いまさらどこに疎開しようというのか、のみならず戦争はもはやさけえられないとするその考え方自体が排斥されねばならぬ。そのように考えることがすでに戦争にまきこまれている證據である

あらゆる人間が武器をとることを拒否する固い覺悟があるかぎり、戦争は絶對に起りえない。新しい憲法はそれを明記しているではないか

こういうとき社會黨が、「戦争にまきこまれたくない」國民の聲を組織化するために「平和運動」を展開する方針を決定したという報道は、われわれを力づけることが多大であつた

一切の平和團體もこのさい小異をすてゝ大同につき、社會黨の平和運動に全面的に協力すべきである。この次の戦争は必ず日本を亡ぼすからである（泉）

國連、秘密裏に編軍 英も朝鮮へ派兵か

【レーキサクセス發】消息筋よりの情報によると國連では朝鮮における米軍援助のため秘密裡に十五乃至二十國からの一大遠征軍を募集中であると傳えている、リー國連事務總長が國連五二國に對し軍隊派遣を要請したがわづか八ないし九國だけが地上軍派遣に應諾したのみである。ある國は國連軍司令官マ元帥に直接相談を進めているものもあるが國連では兵力輸送、供給及び武器の基準化等に就て盛んに下相談を行つていることは事實なのであるが、もし國連によつて相當兵力の募集に成功すれば世界各國からの軍隊は米國製兵器を使用することになるであろう、そうすれば國連地上軍の訓練には相當長期間を要することになろう

【ロンドン發】英政府は二十四日朝鮮の米軍援助のため約二千ないし三千の地上部隊を派遣することに關して討議中であるが、決定は二十六日判明する筈である、もし派遣することになれば香港、マレヤ半島から送られるものである、英政府はこの問題に關連して現下の世界情勢にかんがみ英軍の兵役十八ヶ月を二ケ年に延長する徴兵制度の改革も考慮することになつている

The [illegible] leader was Queen City's [illegible] Fujibayashi who [illegible] hits. Catchers were [illegible] Adachi, Danforths, and Ken Katsuki, Queen City.

Cinch Second Slot

The TNT pulled away in consolidating their second position at the game at Riverdale Park. Although outhit 7-5, the youthful TNT team outscored Hurricanes 5-3.

For the winners, third sacker [illegible] batted in three runs with his brace of doubles, and Jackie Tanaka furnished the usual [illegible] punch with a 2-run [illegible] and also got a single. The pair accounted for all of TNT's runs.

Pitcher Kuni Morimoto and Kitty Hirowaga[illegible] rapped out two singles apiece to pace the Hurricanes attack. TNT catcher Rai Adachi required hospital treatment when he suffered a cut eye-lid on the last play of the game.

Batteries were Dave Sakamoto, Tets Yetabe (5) and Rai Adachi for TNT; Kuni Morimoto, Kaz Ameimori (5) and Nick Ka[illegible] for Hurricanes.

Upset Win

Cellar dwelling Robbies and pitcher Ken Mitsui pulled the surprise of the day with a convincing [illegible] win over Bassels for their first win in seven starts to [illegible] up into a tie with Queen [illegible] fifth spot.

[illegible] Mitsui showed some of his old time form in hurling a [illegible] while his mates combed the Bassel pitchers, Min Na[illegible] Tsuruda and Mas Uyeda for [illegible] hits. Don Mitsuba[illegible] Robbies and Aki Takahashi [illegible] for Bassel's [illegible] the catching.

First Baseman Fred Kinoshita kept up his long ball hitting with a 2-run homer and shortstop Aki Saish [illegible] two hits and two rbi's as well as fielding brilliantly, to lead the Robbies to their long awaited win.

Nisei Ball Loop Finds Isseis For Umpires

An interesting sidelight of the Toronto Nisei Baseball League's triple bill was the appearance of two Issei umpires. According to the players, the two men performed their debuts smoothly and capably. They were Messrs. Kasey Hayashi and Uyeda.

The inaugural of the two Isseis ends the long search that the league undertook to find suitable umpires.

PASSING THRU

Fletcher Henderson. He formed his own bands, toured Europe, and last year, he was King of the Zulus in the annual Mardi Gras parade in New Orleans. Fifty years of lots of living and blowing.

There's many things about Louis the man that fascinate me. Apart from jazz, he enjoys the good things of life, easy living and eating and drinking. Like Babe Ruth with whom Downbeat Mag. compares him, Louis has an enormous appetite, including a big yen for rice, and developed a bad case of ulcers. His favorite dish is red beans and rice. He's been married four times.

* * *

And indirectly I can thank Louis for winning me a fistful of records. Perhaps that's why I started talking about Louis. Jazz Unlimited, a program which invariably finds me stuck to the radio on a Saturday afternoon, usually puts forth a question every week with twenty bucks worth of records as a prize. This time it was "Do you prefer small band or big band jazz—and why?" and as an example as to why I find a weakness for small combos, I noted the Louis concert and compared it with the Duke Ellington concert at Massey Hall.

In part, I said, "... two titans of jazz, both of whom are milestones in the history of jazz ... Louis show wonderful jazz, oozed with relaxation, showmanship ... Duke show sluggish, void of characteristic Duke MOOD, wooden ... Overall effect of two performances showed small band more flexible, relaxed, crowd gets more kick from Pennies From Heaven (Louis) than Don't Get Around Much Anymore (Duke) ..."

Result, success, thanks to Louis.

And me without a record player. Seems that I always win records—no cars, no dream houses, no free trips. Shucks.

I met a girl down London a couple of weeks ago who says she reads this column (bless her) but doesn't care for my ideas in jazz. Sorry, lady, but I'm incorrigible.

Japan Getting Ready For 1952 Olympics

TOKYO — Although readmission to the Olympic Games has yet to be approved for Japan, Nipponese athletes are preparing to train for the games which are to be held at Helsinki, Finland.

The Olympic committee of Japan already announced that it will begin the selection and preparation of athletes.

The decision regarding her admittance will be made in May, 1951, when the International Olympic Committee meets in Vienna, however, Japanese officials were hopeful that Japan will be able to compete again.

Westerns Jrs, Midgets Push Up To Contenders

While the Westerns are bringing up the rear in the Senior circuit, the Junior and Midget editions are right up with the leaders in their respective branches.

Last weekend saw the Westerns Juniors close the gap between first place and themselves to a mere half a game by beating St. Mary's 3-1 and really putting on the heat with a walloping 13-1 win over Columbus Grads. The Juniors got some nifty pitching from Ken Ikeda and Carl Uchikura who both spun four-hit ball. Herb Miyasaki and Major Fukumoto each garnered three hits.

The Westerns Midgets pulled up into a first place tie with West Yorks by blanking Presswood Packers 5-0.

Orphanages In Japan In Dire Need Of Help

"There are unwanted babies in every corner of the city, in the [illegible], public baths, and the [illegible] of desolated streets, [illegible] in the cold and dy[illegible] [illegible] mind."

[illegible] Mrs. Miki Sawada, [illegible] the Episcopalian Elizabeth Sanders Orphanage, Oiso, [illegible] Aid, according [illegible] received by the [illegible] Mission at Yokohama. Mrs. Sawada did not exaggerate [illegible] that Japan faces to[illegible] the handling of its war-[illegible] problem.

For its own orphanages, [illegible] government can allow less [illegible] per day to staff, [illegible] and clothe the institu[illegible] and their wards. The Government [illegible] allows a very small [illegible] to orphanages run by [illegible] groups.

The need for food and clothing at all orphanages, surveys [illegible] revealed, is at all times desperate. Help may be sent in [illegible] of CARE food parcels [illegible] each, and CARE Far East [illegible] packages at $6.00. Delivery is guaranteed. Orders may be sent to CARE, 73 Albert [illegible], Ottawa, Ontario. Church World Service, representing all [illegible] churches, is one of the [illegible] member agencies of CARE.

Besides the Elizabeth Sanders Home for Innocents, the Episcopalians operate seven other orphanages in Japan.

Useful Japanese Delicacy

Snakes Eaten With Rice, Soaked In Sake

Snakes are commonly eaten as a delicacy in many rural districts in Japan. All kinds of snakes are eaten, but mamushi, [illegible] snake, is regarded [illegible]. Some persons are professionally engaged in catching and selling them, but generally rural [illegible] eat what snakes they happen to catch in fields and hills. They are always [illegible] for good prices for live mamushi.

Snakes are skinned and broiled. The taste is [illegible] similar to that of eels but much richer. In some localities snakes are cooked with rice. The meat, after the bones have been removed, are mixed well with the rice.

Snakes are said to be nutritious, and particularly good for persons of weak health or those recovering from long illness. The liver of live snakes, particularly of mamushi, taken raw, is valued as a tonic that gives instant benefit.

Mamushi-zake or sake in which mamushi has been kept for some time, is drunk by many as a stimulant. Other snakes are also used, but mamushi-zake is most famous.

There are snake shops in cities and towns. They sell live snakes and also pulverized snakes. Snake powder is taken as a medicine or stimulant. As the powder is tasteless, even those who would not eat broiled snake can take it.

Recently, snake powder has often come to be used in cooking as it is believed that its addition improves the taste of the food and makes it more nutritious. With the spread of this use of snake powder, enterprising merchants are selling it at department and other stores.
